

Cyrtolobus togatus Woodruff

FEMALE Length: 5 mm

MALE Length: 4 mm

Regional distribution:

southeastern US

Seasonal distribution in FL:

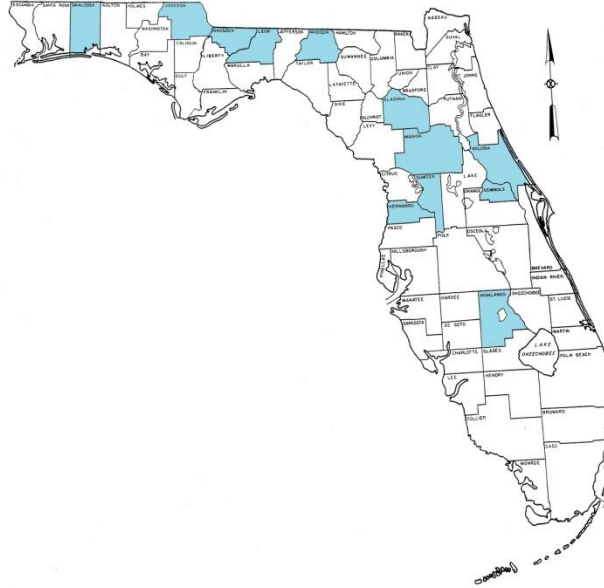

16 March-[1-4] July; most specimens collected April-May

Host associations in FL:

Quercus laurifolia; specimens also taken in blacklight traps

Relative abundance in FL:

uncommon

female

male