

Cyrtolobus tuberosus (Fairmaire)

FEMALE Length: 9-10 mm

MALE Length: 7-8 mm

Regional distribution:

eastern & central US;
eastern & central Canada

Seasonal distribution in FL:

[20-24] February-18 August;
most specimens collected
March- April

Host associations in FL:

Quercus spp. (primarily Q. virginiana); also taken in blacklight traps

Relative abundance in FL:

common

nymph on Quercus alba

female

male

adult on Quercus virginiana