

Entylia carinata (Forster)

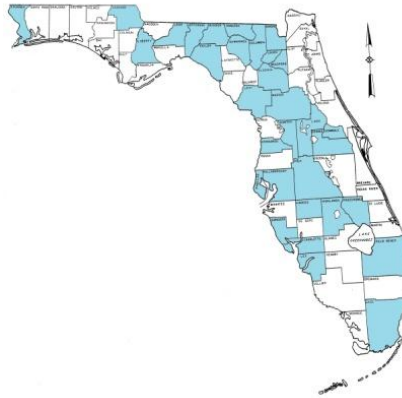

FEMALE Length: 5 mm
MALE Length: 4.5 mm

Regional distribution:
throughout US, Canada, &
Latin America

Seasonal distribution in FL:
multiple generations
throughout the year where and when host plants have tender growth

Host associations in FL:
numerous herbaceous plants,
especially in the Asteraceae, including Ambrosia, Aster, Baccharis, Bidens, Conyza, Dahlia, Erechtites, Eupatorium, Helianthus, & Solidago; also Quercus & Solanum

Relative abundance in FL:
common

adults & nymphs
tended by ants

nymphs on Bidens
tended by ant

females

male

nymph