

Microcentrus perditus (Amyot & Serville)

FEMALE Length: 8.5 mm

MALE Length: 7-8 mm

Regional distribution:

eastern, central &
southwestern US;
northern Mexico;
eastern & central Canada

Seasonal distribution in FL:

Fall, Winter, early Spring; (30 October-29 March); possibly 1 or 2 generations per year.

Host associations in FL:

Quercus laurifolia, Q. nigra, Q. virginiana; most specimens taken in blacklight, insect flight, or malaise traps

Relative abundance in FL:

uncommon

male on Quercus

male

female