

Ophiderma evelyna Woodruff

FEMALE Length: 7 mm

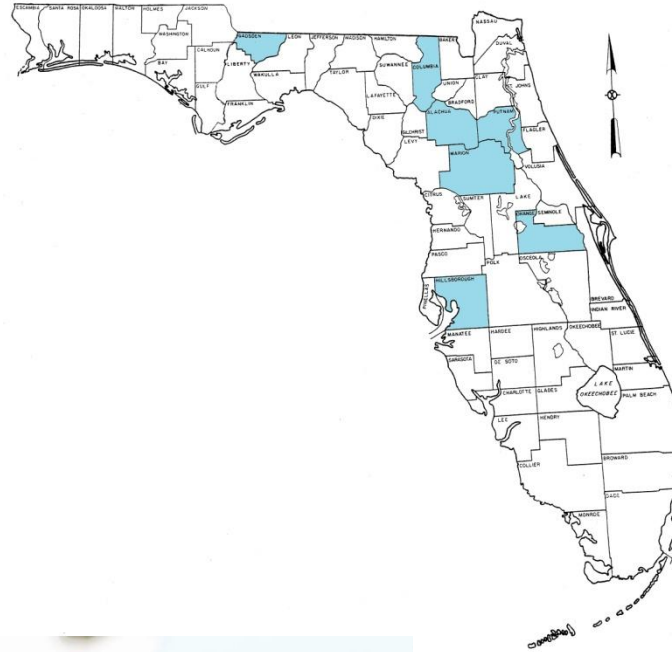

MALE Length: 6 mm

Regional distribution:
eastern & central US;
eastern & central Canada

Seasonal distribution in FL:
25 March-14 June; most specimens collected April-May

Host associations in FL:
Quercus falcata, Q. laurifolia, Q. nigra; also collected in blacklight traps

Relative abundance in FL:
uncommon

female

male