

Platycotis vittata (Fabricius)

FEMALE Length: 9-13 mm

MALE Length: 9-12 mm

Regional distribution:

most of US and Canada

Seasonal distribution in FL:

adult females present throughout the year; two generations with the Spring generation consisting of broods in late February-early April; the Summer-Fall generation consists of far fewer broods in Florida.

Host associations in FL:

virtually all Quercus spp. that occur in Florida

Relative abundance in FL:

common

female & oviposition slits

nymphs

adults & eggs

teneral adults

females with nymphs

